

Linda Norton, who passed away from cancer in 2007, was a longtime REALTOR® with the Fort Collins Board of REALTORS® and well-known in the Fort Collins community as a passionate advocate and longtime champion of affordable housing. She launched several innovative programs to provide affordable housing to thousands of low-income home buyers and renters. In one project, she led a renovation that created 47 apartments for low-income seniors and saved a historic building.

Linda worked in real estate for over 20 years and during that time she received several awards including the Good Neighbor Award, Rookie of the Year, and REALTOR® of the Year by the Fort Collins Board of REALTORS®. She also served as president of the Fort Collins board in 1994.
